Good News Christmas Newsletter !

Since our last newsletter, we've received some great blessings, and with Christmas coming the title seemed like a good idea !

The best of news is, after applying in February, Lloyds Bank has opened Mother Hen Foundation's own Bank Account. All our banking is now done through our own account independently. Please try it out with a gift right now!

🌻 Congratulations gardeners... Karen Scott and Jenny Turner grew winning sunflowers from our launch seeds, to heights of 193 cm (76in far left) and 135 cm (53in), winning 1st and 2nd prizes of £15 and £10 National Garden Token.

Big thanks to all who gave to our Emergency Appeal for Pastor Juma of Uganda (2nd left) to feed his orphans due to severe drought. £369 from the Appeal fed Juma's orphans, plus others, and enabled Pastor Kevin of MHF Kenya to support the mission, providing food, teaching and books.

One of our prime objectives is to encourage individuals to become self sufficient. As in the original Oxfam metaphor, we try to give a man a fishing rod, rather than a fish, so he can fish for himself. More good news of such projects...

Meerab, a talented 20 year old student in Pakistan, has nearly completed her beautician training, personally sponsored by MHF. Meerab can now run her own beauty salon, and provide for her family, two disabled parents and four youngsters. Meerab also teaches MHF Sunday School.

Zohaib, MHF Pakistan Administrator and founder member has recently experienced severe hardship, like many Christians in Pakistan. It has been difficult to complete his advanced computer studies and find suitable work. MHF has sent him a preloved laptop to help fulfil his ambitions.

Momma Fozia, Zohaib's mum is also supporting our efforts by training young girls to sew, so they can make clothes for themselves and their families and sell crafts.

Please send your donation now to our own MHF account to continue to support ongoing projects. No middle men, no big charity salaries, no transaction fees just direct to those in need.

via electronic bank transfer Mother Hen Foundation

Sort Code 30-98-97 Acc No 83725363

or cheque payable to Mother Hen Foundation, 8 Hunsdon Manor Gardens, Weston-under-Penyard, Ross on Wye HR9 7FQ

with thanks and every blessing for a truly Happy Christmas
